MAKING FINE PROGRESS

ALL ANTHRACITE COAL COMPANIES PREPARING TO RESUME MINING.

MEN REPORTING FOR WORK

Thousands of Every Class Make Application for Positions at the Various Collieries—Many Disappointments Among the Engineers and Pumpmen—Mitchell Preparing the Miners' Side of Arbitration Case.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 23.—Rapid progress is being made by all the coal companies in the anthracite region toward a general resumption of coal mining. The suspension officially ends at 7 o'clock in the morning, but the quantity of coal that will be mined this week will not be great. It is not believed 25 per cent of the normal production will be reached until some time next week. A number of mines will not be in condition for operation for several months and others will not be ready for the men under two or three weeks. The day was devoted to a general inspection at most collieries. In a great number of collieries much timbering will be necessary to prevent "squeezes." The nearly six months' idleness has in many instances rusted breaker machinery, which may cause some delay in starting. Notwithstanding the many drawbacks, however, the company officials are confident there will be plenty of coal for distribution before the cold weather sets in.

Thousands of men of every class made application for work during the day. Under the decision of the convention those directly employed in cutting and handling coal cannot return to work until morning, but workmen who are needed to make repairs and otherwise place the workhorses in condition for operation were reinstated during the day wherever needed. There were many disappointments, however, principally among the engineers and pumpmen. These two classes of mine workers struck on June 2 for an eight-hour day and also to help the miners win their contest. Their positions are not so arduous as those of the miners and other laborers and the wages paid are comparatively better. They Want Their Old Positions Back and in many cases they failed. Company superintendents said during the day that there would be no discrimination in taking back men, except where men have committed violence or were otherwise unduly aggressive during the progress of the strike. Such men, the officials say, will not be taken back.

A great number of men who have been employed throughout the strike left their places during the day and returned to their homes. Hundreds were paid off by the several coal companies in this valley and the same is true of the other regions. Among these were clerks, who will return to the offices of the coal companies; men who were employed in other occupations and were thrown out of work on account of the strike; men who were strikers but went back to work in other parts of the region where they were not known and will now return to their own localities, and some coal and iron policemen.

Celebrations in honor of the ending of the strike were continued in many towns of the Wyoming valley during the day.

President Mitchell is now engaged in preparing the miners' side of the case for presentation to the arbitration commission. He held a conference with National Secretary-Treasurer W. B. Wilson during the day and the latter left for national headquarters of the mine workers at Indianapolis late in the afternoon. It is very likely that soon after his arrival there an announcement will be sent out to terminate the collection of the strike assessment levied in July on all union soft coal miners.

MANY RETURN HOME.

Miners Refuse to Sign a Contract Prepared by a Coal Company.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 23.—The men who reported for work at the Mill Creek Coal company's Vulcan colliery during the morning were told that they would have to report at the company's store and sign a contract before being reinstated. A few of them signed the paper as requested, but many refused to sign and returned home.

DAY FOR IRISH DEBATE

LIVELY DISCUSSION IN HOUSE OF COMMONS OVER GRANTING ONE.

ILL FEELING INCREASES

Debate Only Leads to a Great Deal of Straw Splitting and Allegations of Discourtesy—William O'Brien Gives Notice of a Resolution Declaring the Operation of the Crimes Act in Ireland Unjustifiable.

London, Oct. 23.—There was another lively though futile discussion in the house of commons during the day on the subject of granting a day for a debate on the state of Ireland. It only led to a great deal of straw splitting, allegations of discourtesy and a considerable increase in the ill-feeling prevailing. The Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, again supported Patrick O'Brien's request for a day, saying that the premier had declined the concession, "on the mere request of the Irish members." He, as a Scotchman, gladly supported the request.

Mr. Balfour explained that he could only give a day at Sir Henry's request on the understanding that the motion took the form of a vote of censure on the government and that it was supported by the opposition as a whole. The Liberal leader, however, disclaimed any such intention. He refused to identify himself so completely with the Nationalists, although he strongly contended that the request of the Irish members should be granted. Mr. Balfour said: "I think the right honorable gentleman had better make up his mind. If he cannot go any further and take a full plunge he had better defer this discussion."

Sir Henry resented what he termed a discourtesy, but Mr. Balfour disavowed any such intention. During the altercation, William O'Brien, T. P. O'Connor and others interjected comments on Mr. Balfour's "insulting attitude towards the Irish," and the discussion concluded with William O'Brien exclaiming: "If we are not given a day we will take one." William O'Brien afterward gave notice of a resolution declaring that in the opinion of the house the operation of the crimes act in Ireland was not justified by the condition of the country, was unfair in its application, opposed to civilized usage in the manner of its administration, and calculated to undermine the respect of the law, estrange the people of Ireland and deeply injure the interests of peace between England and Ireland.

LABOR RIOTS IN FRANCE.

Police and Dock Laborers Have Several Encounters at Dunkirk.

Dunkirk, France, Oct. 23.—There were several encounters here during the day between the police and dock laborers, in which a commissary and four policemen were injured. The strikers raided several shops and smashed windows in newspaper offices. In the evening they invaded the docks and attempted to cut the moorings of British colliers. They set fire to bales of goods and threw cargo cranes and sentry boxes into the canal. Troops were summoned and finally succeeded in driving the strikers away. The town hall of Dunkirk and the newspaper offices are now guarded by soldiers. All the drawbridges have been opened in order to prevent the passage through the city of striking laborers. The secretary of the National Federation of Dock Laborers of France recently notified Premier Combes of the decision of the federation to order a general cessation of work at the docks in sympathy with the striking coal miners.

The dockers of Marseilles are reported to have pledged themselves not to allow foreign coal to land there until the mine owners yield to the demands of the striking coal men.

AN INTERESTING WITNESS.

President Harris of the Burlington Testifies in Merger Hearing.

St. Paul, Oct. 23.—The day's session of the government merger hearing was in many respects the most interesting that has been held, and the large audience assembled listened with close attention to the story told by President George B. Harris of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road.

Mr. Harris made an exceptionally good witness, and made a far more favorable impression than Mr. Hill himself had made. He talked with ease and rapidly and his remarks were for the most part convincing. He had the situation thoroughly in hand throughout, and was not in the least embarrassed by the cross-examination through which Mr. Day put him. He showed an inclination to be very fair and open in his testimony, without disposition to beg any question raised or to answer only in part.

He told practically the same story which Mr. Hill had told previously, but he told it in a better and more impressive way.

Two Wisconsin Hunters Missing.

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 23.—Lewis and Henry Ferriks of this city, brothers, living on the North Side, have been missing since Saturday. They went duck hunting on Green Bay Saturday evening and have not been seen or heard of since. As it was the intention of the men to return home Sunday it is feared they were drowned.

Child Killed by a Wagon.

Watertown, S. D., Oct. 23.—The five-year-old son of Ben Ballou was run over during the afternoon by a load of hay and instantly killed, the wheels of the wagon passing over his head and crushing it.

GIVEN A BAD BEATING.

Three Nonunion Italians Roughly Used at Scranton, Pa.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 23.—Three Italians who have been working at the Dodge washery of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company during the strike were set upon by a mob as they were returning from work during the evening and given a bad beating. Two of them were rescued by the city police and taken to the Lackawanna hospital. The third, Joseph Braun, got away from the crowd before the police arrived and ran to Bellevue. Four men set upon him again and after beating him into insensibility threw him over a fence into the yard of a dwelling where he was found in a pool of blood. His injuries, while serious, will not prove fatal. No arrests have been made.

Glass Workers on Strike.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 23.—Nearly 1,000 men employed at the two plants of the Hazel Glass and Metal company and the Atlas Glass and Metal company went out on a strike during the evening as a result of the refusal of the officials to recognize the glass workers' union. The plants are completely shut up.

EXPRESS COMPANY INDICTED.

Charged With Violating Internal Revenue Laws in Iowa.

Keokuk, Ia., Oct. 23.—The federal grand jury during the day returned to the United States district court an indictment of the Adams Express company for an alleged violation of the internal revenue laws. Persons at Birmingham, Ia., received C. O. D. packages of whisky from consignors in Illinois and paid collections and charges to express agent.

The grand jury and District Attorney Miles held that the C. O. D. method constitutes a sale of goods by the express company to the consignee and, hence, requires a retail liquor dealers' license. The express company was indicted as a corporation under a California precedent. United States Marshal Christian will serve notice on the president of the Adams Express company and the agent at Birmingham. The case grows out of the efforts of persons in many Iowa communities to prevent the sale of liquor and the efforts of dealers to circumvent the Iowa prohibitory law.

The law is badly crippled by a decision of the United States supreme court, that interstate traffic in original packages cannot be stopped by state law. The indictment is based on the theory that the C. O. D. practice can be stopped by federal law.

It is the most important case in Iowa since the "original package" decision fifteen years ago.

FOOTPADS INTERCEPTED

Young Earl McDonough has an Experience With a Couple of Them Last Night in the Ravine.

Last night as Earl McDonough was returning home from the Northern Pacific shops and when he was down on the ravine bottom he was suddenly tripped up by a rope which had been tightly drawn across the path. He recovered himself quickly and only managed to escape from the clutches of a footpad by a hair's breadth and ran away. As he ran he noticed another man standing near by and he believes that they had planned to rob him. This was the day after the N. P. employees were paid off and he believes they were after his coin.

Positive proof from Brainerd people.

Briefly told for the public good. Such is the following testimony.

Mr. R. D. Ransom, of Third Ave., East Brainerd, fireman at the Brainerd Lumber Co., says: "For as long as twelve or fourteen years I was a sufferer from kidney ailments. My back hurt me awfully; I could stoop, but when I attempted to rise, severe pain caught me in the loins. Often in bed I could not change my position and when morning came I had to be helped out of bed. The kidney secretions were of a very unhealthy color and were otherwise irregular. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box did me so much good that I took another. The treatment cured me."

A large new cigar case is being installed and some large cases for liquor goods are being placed in position. He is rearranging the entire interior and expects to have one of the most beautiful, if not the most beautiful place in the city. The cost of the improvements will be about $400.

Mr. Swanson will also engage in the wholesale liquor business on a small scale in the future. He expects to keep a large supply of bottles and jugs on hand for sale to the trade.

CALIFORNIA FOREST RESERVES.

Six Million Acres of Land Withdrawn From the Public Area.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Approximately 6,000,000 acres of land in Northern California were provisionally withdrawn from the public land area for the creation of forest reserves under orders issued during the day by Commissioner Hermann of the general land office. The order was issued by the direction of the secretary of the interior. The segregation of these tracts was recommended after investigation by the geological survey. A further examination of the lands will be made pending which final orders establishing the reservations are deferred. The land involved in the order, as now contemplated, is to be divided into four reserves as follows:
The Klamath river forest reserve, embracing 3,780 square miles; the Mt. Shasta reserve, 3,024 square miles; the Lassen Park reserve, 1,692 square miles; and the Diamond Mountain, 872 square miles. The location of the respective areas is indicated by their names.

NUMBER STILL UNKNOWN.

Four Victims of the Chicago Sugar Plant Fire Identified.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Four of the five bodies taken to the morgue from the fire in plant of the Glucose Sugar Refining company have been identified. They are: Otto Trapp, Edward Steinke, Andrew Worleka and Joseph Barry.

It is almost certain that several more bodies are lying in the ruins, but the heat of the debris has prevented firemen from making any search and the exact number is not known. Seventeen time checks were not returned to the superintendent during the day, but five of the men holding the missing checks were seen near the ruins during the day.

What They Hope For.

Democrats are not so much worried as to which particular schedule of tariff shall be revised as that they hope to see a schism in the Republican ranks which will enable them to further a ripping and splitting of protection and its overwhelming prosperity.—Dayton (Fla.) Journal.

DR. FORBES SAD PLIGHT REGRETTED

Leaves St. Paul Without Warning But is Located at Valley City With Friends.

MELANCHOLY OVER HARD WORK

His Friends will do all in Their Power to Have Him Take Much Needed Rest

An article which appeared in yesterday's Pioneer Press regarding the sudden disappearance from St. Paul of Dr. Robert Forbes, presiding elder of this district, was read with keen regret in this city. Since the article was published, Dr. Forbes was located at Valley City where he went to visit for a time with friends. It is reported that he is suffering from melancholia and his condition is very much deplored by all his friends.

The following was taken from the Pioneer Press regarding his sudden disappearance:

"Much anxiety is felt by his friends over the disappearance of Rev. Robert E. Forbes, presiding elder of the Duluth district and formerly pastor of the Jackson Street M. E. church of this city. He was last seen in St. Paul Thursday noon, while suffering under a severe attack of nervous prostration, and some of his friends fear that he may have been a victim of foul play. Several of his friends in this city, aided by the local police and Detective Terry from Duluth, have searched St. Paul and the surrounding cities and have wired to every police department in the state without result. The search has been carried on since last Friday in hopes that the preacher had merely gone to visit a friend in some other town and had not made the fact public. It is thought that Dr. Forbes may have gone to California where he has friends, or he might have gone to Portland, Or. Dr. Forbes, who was one of the most popular Methodist ministers in the state, left his home in Duluth Oct. 12, without saying good-bye to his wife or any one else, and came to St. Paul. He stopped at Hotel Foley on Jackson street until Wednesday evening when he went to the home of his friend, Rev. James H. DeWart, 1845 Carroll St. While at the hotel he wrote to the bishop of the Minnesota conference, resigning his position as presiding elder of the Duluth district on the grounds that he needed a rest.

"He remained at Rev. DeWart's home until after luncheon Thursday, when he said that he would have to go down town to see a friend. He went to the Hotel Foley, secured his grip and left without saying anything to any one. Where he went to or what train he took, could not be learned. His disappearance, after leaving the hotel, has been complete. "Dr. DeWart said last night that he thought that Dr. Forbes had gone to California where he has influential friends.

"Dr. Forbes was broken down from excessive work and while suffering under one of the attacks of nervous prostration to which he was subject, he suddenly decided to go away some place and seek rest, never thinking to tell any one where he was going. Although I am greatly worried over his whereabouts, still I don't think any harm has come to him. I believe that he has gone to California where he will engage in secular work for a time to get a complete rest."

"Rev. Forbes was one of the ablest ministers in the Minnesota conference. He delivered a lecture before the last conference, only a short time ago, which was considered one of the best heard at the meeting."

An Event Greatly Enjoyed.

THE DISPATCH inadvertently failed to mention the concert given at the Y. M. C. A. parlors on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the "Y" foot ball team. The Aeolian quartette, composed of Mesdames LaBar and Atherton and Messrs. Alderman and Webb, rendered some excellent selections. Mr. Jay Patek and Mrs. E. W. Crane also assisted. It was one of the best musical programs listened to in this city for some time and was a success both from an artistic as well as a financial standpoint.

PREAMBULATED IN BOYS CLOTHES

Young Grace Gould, of Cass Lake,
Taken to State Training
School by Sheriff Hardy

RECORD IS NOT PLEASING ONE.

But She is up in Arms and Threatens to Show Some Business Men up.

Sheriff Hardy, of Walker, passed through the city yesterday afternoon with young Grace Gould, a fourteen year old girl who was being taken to the training school at Red Wing. She was a clear type of the Hogan's Alley character and if there is any one in doubt that the young girl is suffering from mental anguish because she has been subjected to the ordeal of going to the training school they should just have a talk with the young lady for the glib and chipper chatter would put to rest any sympathies that might arise for such a young girl who had fallen by the wayside.

While she assumed the most undisturbed attitude over the fact that she was being taken to a training school she indignantly declared that she would make it warm for some of the business men of Cass Lake, whom she said had been the means of her downfall. She declared that there would be a scattering to the four winds and taking to the tail timber if she ever let loose on them.

During the tenure of the young girl's life she has passed through some great experiences which would cover pages of history with shame.

She was taken in custody of the officers at Fargo where she was found to be preambulating in boys clothes. She had cut her hair short and was the perfect image of an ideal American boy well upon the ways of the world, and on this account it is said she was admitted almost anywhere man dared to go. What such a young girl in such a disguise could see in the world is only too well known.

She was taken back to Cass Lake and an order was issued by Judge

McClennahan that she be taken to the training school where she will have a chance to mend her ways.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Mike and Matt Sasgen Receive Some Bad
News From Cold Springs--Brother
Was Killed.

Mike J. Sasgen and wife and Matt Sasgen left this noon for Cold Springs, Stearns county, on a sad mission. They received a telegram from their father, Thomas Sasgen, to the effect that their brother, Geo. Sasgen, was accidentally killed this morning. The telegram did not give any particulars and the brothers were at a loss to know how it happened. They were aware that their brother had been engaged for some time in blowing up rocks of huge dimensions on the farm with dynamite and they think that perhaps he was injured fatally in this manner.

Yesterday in St. Paul a settlement was effected between Andrew Nelson and the Minnesota & International in the damage suit which was brought by the former against the railroad company some time ago. Nelson was in the employ of the M. & I. at the round house, and while working about a turn table slipped and injured his knee cap. The injury he thought to be a permanent one, and he brought suit against the company for $20,000 damages. The amount which Nelson received in the settlement is not known, but it is thought that he must have secured quite a substantial sum.

REPUBLICANS NAME THEIR NOMINEES

City Convention Held Last Night
at Court House--A. J. Halsted for Mayor.

BBEWITT HAD A WALKAWAY.

J. C. Smallwood Nominated for City Treasurer and A. G.
Trommald Assessor

The republican city convention was convened last night at the court house to nominate men for the different offices on the city ticket. There was no contest except for the office of judge of the municipal court and this was so one sided that there was not really the slightest ripple on the erstwhile very smooth campaign.

On motion of S. F. Alderman, Geo. Forsyth was named temporary chairman and E. O. Webb was named temporary clerk. The chair then appointed the following named gentlemen as a committee on permanent organization: S. F. Alderman, Edward Crust and William Mahood. After a few minutes deliberation they reported on the credentials from the different wards. Of the thirty-two delegates entitled to seats in the convention twenty-nine were present. The report was on motion accepted and adopted.

On motion of S. F. Alderman the temporary organization was made permanent and the convention got down to business. Dr. Groves moved that each delegation who had absentees among its number be entitled to count the ballot for those who were absent. The motion was carried.

Dr. A. F. Groves in a very neat speech placed in nomination for the office of mayor of the city Hon. A. J. Halsted. He spoke at some little length regarding the qualifications of the present incumbent of the office and declared that he was eminently fitted for the position. "It was a case of the office seeking the man," he said, "and not the man seeking the office." There were no other nominations and Daniel Halliday moved that the secretary be instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the convention for Mr. Halsted. This motion prevailed.

The next office was that of city treasurer and C. B. Rowley presented the name of J. C. Smallwood. There were no other names presented and Mr. Smallwood was the unanimous choice of the convention.

Mons Mahlum placed in nomination for the office of city assessor the name of A. G. Trommald and the gentleman had no opposition. The unanimous vote of the convention was cast for him by the secretary.

Next came the office of municipal judge and one over which the only contest arose. S. F. Alderman placed before the convention the name of T. C. Blewitt and in doing so spoke of the general satisfaction that he had already given as an incumbent of the office, reviewed his qualifications and spoke of his honesty and integrity in the discharge of his duties.

John Grandquist placed in nomination for the same office the name of A. C. Allbright. Before the ballot was taken Mr. Allbright made a few remarks stating that in accepting the votes of his friends on the first ballot he did not anticipate that he would be nominated; that he knew that he was beaten, but he thanked his ardent supporters and believed that they had made a glorious fight in the face of the opposition that they had to go up against.

But one ballot was taken the vote resulting as follows: Blewitt 20; Allbright 9. E. D. Wilkins, one of Mr. Allbright's supporters, then moved that vote be made unanimous and that Mr. Blewitt be declared the unanimous choice of the convention. The motion carried.

George Reimestad was placed in nomination for the office of special municipal judge, there being no opposition. Mr. Reimestad has been in Brainerd but a short time, is a graduate of the Minnesota university and is a brother of Dr. Reimestad of this city.

S. F. Alderman then moved that the nominations made the night before for the offices of aldermen and members of the board of education be ratified by the convention.

There was just a slight ripple at this juncture when Dr. Groves made a few strenuous remarks on the subject of "toteing fair". It seems that he was personally cognizant of the fact that there was one man nominated that had never affiliated himself with the republican party, but on the contrary was of another stripe and had worked for and supported another party. He said: "Let every man declare himself if he must secure the ratification of a republican convention; let every tub stand on its own bottom." After calling attention to the matter he withdrew his objection this time, but thought it a good thing to watch these things.

The motion of S. F. Alderman was unanimously carried.

A motion prevailed that the nominee for mayor be given the authority to select the chairman of the republican city committee after which the convention adjourned.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"WHITE MAHATMA"

An entertainment of an exceedingly interesting character is announced for this evening at the Brainerd opera house. Spiritualistic manifestations, mental telepathy, and other curious features will comprise a bill of unusual attractiveness. The famous "White Mahatma" will appear in his marvelous manifestations which have excited the wonder and admiration of people in nearly all parts of the civilized world.

His program is made up of the most startling oriental and theosophical wonders acquired by him through his association with Madam Blavatsky and the Hindoo "adepts" of India.

Prices for tonight are lowered to only 25, 35 and 50c so that everybody may attend this wonderful performance.

"THE GLOBE TROTTER"

Could you start from Brainerd without a penny in your pocket and go entirely around the earth and come back in a year with $5,000? A. Cheever Steele of Boston did it recently, and it was not until the last five days of his time that he had saved a dollar, but in that period he certainly hustled and justly earned the title of "The Globe Trotter." His adventures with a tramp whom he met on the way, also a dear little maiden, form a story that is replete with roars of laughter from end to end.

The "Globe Trotter" comes to the Brainerd opera house tomorrow night, seats now selling at Dunn's drug store.

NEW YORK CAMPAIGN

STATE POLITICS ASSUME A BIT-
TER ASPECT OVER CHARGES AGAINST ODELL.

SPEECH AT TAMMANY HALL

Ex-Senator Hill Endorses Published
Allegations That the Governor is Interested in Business Concerns
Profiting by State Contracts—Odell
Makes Vigorous Denial and Severely
Denounces Hill's Political Career.

New York, Oct. 23.—The state political campaign assumed a bitter aspect during the day through the endorsement given by ex-Senator Hill of allegations published in a Schenectady paper that Governor Odell was interested in business concerns that were profiting by state contracts. The allegations were repeated during the evening by Senator Hill in his speech at the Tammany Hall ratification meeting. Mr. Hill said:

"It now appears that the 'raid' upon the charitable institutions of the state made last winter by the Odell administration was not only political but mercenary in its character. Its real purpose was not merely to secure complete control of all the official positions to be had in the various charitable institutions, but to control the purchase of supplies therefor."

Governor Odell, speaking during the evening at Syracuse, devoted considerable time to a denial and refutation of the charges. He said that when he was elected governor he severed relations with concerns that might be even remotely benefitted by the state contracts, and that he had conscientiously refrained from saying or doing anything that might be construed as tending to help his former business associates. The governor also reviewed and denounced the political career of Mr. Hill, and concluded with a bitter personal attack upon the ex-senator, to whom he alluded as "a man who has never known the love of woman, who has never heard the prattle of innocent children in his home, and who would sacrifice his best friends to his ambitions."

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION ENDS.

Great Gathering of Temperance Workers Adjourns.

Portland, Me., Oct. 23.—With the hymn "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and the benediction, the great convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance union came to an end during the evening. The meeting place for next year has not been decided, but the belief is general that it will be in some city of the Middle West. The convention began last Friday, and every moment of the program time was full of interest. Reports were made from every part of the field and prominent workers for the cause were heard. The general sessions were held in the Jefferson theater, but all the churches threw wide open their doors for overflow and other meetings of which there was a great number.

SHAW IN MINNEAPOLIS.

Secretary of the Treasury Speaks at Exposition Building.

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—In a manner that good Democrats could hardly take offense at, Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, expounded Republicanism to 2,500 people at the Exposition building in Minneapolis during the evening. It was the largest meeting that the Republicans have held in this city during the present campaign.

Secretary Shaw freely discussed the Democratic party, but at no time did he resort to abuse. His arguments were always clean. His main contention was that the Democratic is an issue-seeking party, and that it does not urge the same issues from campaign to campaign.

DECIDES FOR GERMANY.

King Oscar of Sweden Settles Samoan Controversy.

Washington, Oct. 23.—King Oscar of Sweden and Norway has decided the Samoan controversy in favor of Germany. The announcement will be astonishing to the governments of the United States and Great Britain, which were confident that they would establish the joint legality and propriety of the joint landing of marines at Apia, in 1899, to sustain the decree of the Samoan supreme court and end the revolution.

The extent to which the decree covers the claims for damages filed by the citizens of the three countries and of France may not be known for several days. These claims, which were nominally the prime cause for arbitration, are insignificant, however, compared with the question of national honor on which they depended and if the action of the United States and Great Britain had been sustained by the royal arbiter, would have fallen to the ground.

The Samoan dispute grew out of the concerted action of Rear Admirals Kautz of the United States navy and Sturdy of the British navy in landing a combined American and British force at Apia on April 1, 1899, for the purpose of making a reconnaissance and breaking up Mataafa's supporters, who were in rebellion against the recognized government. It was on this occasion that Philip Lansdale, the executive officer of the Philadelphia; Ensign J. R. Monaghan and two enlisted Americans, and Lieutenant Freeman and two British sailors were killed.

The United States ship Badger was promptly sent to the scene, carrying an international commission, composed of Bartlett Tripp, representing the United States; Von Sternberg, the German commissioner, and C. N. Elliott, the British commissioner. As the chief result of the investigations of the commission the tri-part agreement of 1899 was abrogated, the islands being divided between the United States and Germany, while Great Britain withdrew. A convention was signed at Washington on Nov. 7, 1899, submitting the claims of Samoan residents to the king of Sweden and Norway for arbitration, the main question being whether the military action of the United States and Great Britain had been warranted.

BY A TIE VOTE.

Danish Landsting Rejects Bill to Ratify Sale of West Indies.

Copenhagen, Oct. 23.—The landsting rejected the second reading of the bill providing for the ratification of the treaty between Denmark and the United States in regard to the cession of the Danish West Indies to the latter country. The vote stood 32 to 32, a tie. The announcement caused the greatest excitement in the house and demonstrations on the part of the spectators.

In the voting there were two abstentions. The Rightists and two Independent Conservatives opposed the bill. The Leftists and six Independent Conservatives supported it.

The vote was taken without any debate and the result was greeted with mingled cheers and shouts of disapprobation.

Crown Prince Frederick, all the ministers and many members of the diplomatic corps and members of the folketing were present. The public galleries were crowded.

KEENLY DISAPPOINTED.

Many Residents of Danish West Indies
Desired Annexation.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Oct. 23.—The rejection by the Danish landsting of the treaty providing for the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States has been received quietly in St. Thomas and up to the present time there has been no popular expression of feeling or demonstration. The local press has not yet commented on the matter. A large section of the population of the islands is greatly disappointed at the receipt of the news, believing that its hopes of prosperity have been shattered. A smaller, but strong section of the islanders is jubilant and hopes for a renewal of prosperity under the old flag with the aid of the motherland.

Some anxiety is felt as to what course the laborers of the island of St. Croix will take, the feeling there being decidedly in favor of the sale. The Danish cruiser Ingolf is at present at Christianstad, St. Croix.

ENGAGED TO A SOUTHERNER.

Rumored Betrothal of Miss Alice
Roosevelt to an Arkansas Man.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 23.—A special to the Commercial Appeal from Little Rock, Ark., says:

Information reached Little Rock during the day from reliable sources at Washington that the engagement of Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of President Roosevelt, to Mr. John Greenway of Hot Springs, Ark., will be announced in a few days.

Mr. Greenway is about thirty years of age and a son of Dr. Greenway, a leading physician of Hot Springs. He was a lieutenant in the Rough Rider regiment during the Spanish-American war and has visited Washington several times during the past year. He comes from an old Southern family and is a young man of high character. He left Hot Springs several days ago for Washington.

FIRE DESTROYS A HOTEL.

One Person Dead, Two Fatally and Five Others Badly Injured.

McKinney, B. C., Oct. 23.—One woman is dead, two men fatally injured, another woman severely hurt and four others badly burned by fire that destroyed the hotel at Fairview early in the day. The dead woman is Miss Smith, a school teacher. The fatally injured are John Allen and — Matthias.

The fire started in the basement of the building, which was a three-story frame structure. The meagre information obtainable makes it appear that the fatally injured jumped from the third story window.

TO PROTECT LOCAL RATE.

Railways Decide to Reissue Minnesota
Tariff on Live Stock.

St. Paul, Oct. 23.—Representatives of the freight departments of the Chicago-St. Paul lines during the day met to check the rates on live stock from points in Minnesota on which the local of 9 1/2 cents applies. The tariffs covering the reduction of the rate on live stock from St. Paul to Chicago did not state with sufficient clearness the territory to which the reduction applied. The result was that shippers that have been sending consignments from within a radius of twenty-five miles west of St. Paul on the local of 9 1/2 cents sought to take advantage of the 15 1/2 cent rate on through shipments to Chicago without paying the local.

The tariffs will be reissued so that on and after Nov. 5 the minimum through rate on cattle from all points to Chicago will be 25 cents. The local to St. Paul will be 9 1/2 cents, and the rate from St. Paul to Chicago will be 15 1/2 cents, making the 25 cents which will be the minimum. The rates on cattle coming from the ranges are not affected, the purpose of the revision being merely to protect the territory where the through rate is 25 cents or under.

COPY OF TRUST DEED FILED.

Act of United States Gypsum Company

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 23.—The United States Gypsum company during the day filed with the clerk of Kent county a copy of a $1,000,000 trust deed given to the Federal Trust and Savings company of Chicago, to secure the 5 per cent twenty-year gold bonds filed by the gypsum company with the trust company when the gypsum combine was formed. The mortgage covers gypsum-bearing lands in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma and Michigan.

Rev. Dr. Sabine Made a Bishop.

The ceremony was performed in the First Reformed Episcopal church, Madison avenue. Bishop Samuel Fallows of Chicago celebrated holy communion.

Runs Into a Terrible Typhoon.

San Francisco, Oct. 23.—The steamer American Maru, which arrived here during the day from the Orient, passed through a terrible typhoon the day after she left Yokohama. The vessel steamed straight through the vortex, encountering fearful seas. One of the Japanese stewards was dashed against a deckhouse and killed.

Old Friends Take a Last Look at James Younger's Body.

Lees Summit, Mo., Oct. 23.—Nearly all the survivors of Quantrell's guerrillas will attend the funeral of James Younger during the day. There will be no funeral sermon. The coffin will not be taken into the church. The casket containing the body of the dead bandit rested all day in the home of N. S. Fenton, who married a niece of Cole and Jim Younger. Upon the casket was a bunch of roses given by John O'Connor, chief of police of St. Paul. A stream of people visited the Fenton cottage during the afternoon and night and filed past the coffin.

WILL NOT BE CREMATED.

Body of James Younger to Be Quietly Buried.

Kansas City, Oct. 23.—The body of Jim Younger will not be cremated, notwithstanding the supposed request of the dead bandit. C. B. Hull, a cousin of the Youngers, who accompanied the body from St. Paul, said:

"Jim never wanted to be cremated. The story probably grew out of a line written on an envelope before he died. He told the newspaper men in this note to treat him fair and not to burn him up. Out of that has grown the impression that he wanted to be cremated."
